

PROJECT OBJECTIVE

The project seeks to strengthen cross-border disaster risk management and climate resilience in the Aroneanu-Cubolta-Ungheni-Dorohoi area by rehabilitating and consolidating critical hydraulic infrastructure, establishing joint emergency response mechanisms and control centers, developing risk mapping and early warning systems, equipping intervention authorities, and enhancing institutional and community preparedness for climate-related hazards.

ROMD00386

CAPACITY DEVELOPMENT
FOR DISASTER RISK
ADAPTATION AND
PREVENTION OF CROSS-BORDER CITIES

Partnership

LP: UNGHENI CITY HALL , REPUBLIC OF MOLDOVA

PP2: Municipality of Dorohoi, Botosani county,
Romania

PP2: Regional Centre of Sustainable Development, Republic of Moldova

RIADAPT

PROJECT RESULTS

- Elaboration and approval of the Joint cross-border Emergency Response Strategy
- Development of Risk maps
- Cross-border network of Emergency Responders
- Installing early warning system in Dorohoi
- Endowing the emergencies authorities with intervention equipment
- Training and awareness campaigns promoting climate change adaption
- Consolidation of the dyke in Ungheni
- 1 Emergency Control Centres in Ungheni renovated
- 1 Emergency Control Centres in Dorohoi created
- Technical Documentation of the EEC Dorohoi

TOTAL BUDGET: 1.559.470,10 EUR

EU FUNDING: 1.403.523,07 EUR

PROJECT START: 01.08.2025

PROJECT END: 31.05.2027

CONTACT

Ungheni City Hall
Republic of Moldova

Ms. Victoria Darie
Project Manager
victoria.darie@gmail.com

